City of Vernon seeking Advisory Planning Committee members

Are you looking for a way to help shape the future of your community and volunteer?

The City of Vernon is seeking 12 individuals to join the Advisory Planning Committee. Consisting of volunteer community members, the Advisory Planning Committee provides Council with recommendations on proposed land use variances and amendments.

Volunteers serve a two-year term, with the Committee meeting every two weeks, on the Tuesday following Regular Council meetings.

The 12 positions are appointed as Community at Large Representatives. Of those 12 positions, the City is specifically looking for:

- a) An individual that has a background in accessibility for the disabled/mobility impaired
- b) A representative from Independent Living Vernon
- c) A youth member (a non-voting member with a term of two years)

If you are interested in serving on the Advisory Planning Committee, you may pick up a copy of the Committee's Terms of Reference and an application form at Reception at City Hall (3400 30th Street) or by visiting the City of Vernon website at www.vernon.ca/council-committees.

Please note that individual applicants MUST reside within Vernon City limits, unless otherwise stated in the Committee Terms of Reference.

Applications will be accepted until Wednesday, November 30, 2022.
